

Categorical, ordinal and bivariate data

Variant 3

Answers

Visit our website for tutorials on each question.

www.statsgcse.com

- 1 A researcher records the height and weight of individuals.
Select the type of data.

(1 mark)

Select one box.

- Categorical
 Bivariate

- 2 A company plans to categorise employee ages for pension planning.
The tally chart below will be used.

Age	Tally
20 - 40
40 - 60
60 - 80

Suggest two criticisms with this tally chart.

(2 marks)

Select two boxes.

- There are too many groups
 The company should also record hours worked
 Cannot record ages under 20
 The groups overlap

- 3 A scientist is exploring how temperature affects plant growth.
Give an example of bivariate data that could be collected.

(2 marks)

Select the two correct statements (four statements are incorrect).

- Leaf colour
- Soil temperature
- Plant species name
- and pot shape
- and garden size
- and plant height